

Contents

INTRODUCTION

Preface

AI & SOCIETY

AI and Spiritual Practice An Interview with Dzongsar Jamyang Khyentse Rinpoche	5
Reflections on AI, Buddhism, Bhutan, and GMC Chholay Namgay Dorji	9
Artificial Intelligence and Disability Inclusivity Pema Chhogyel	20
AI and the Future Bhutanese Journalism: Towards a Human-Centred Framework Pallavi Majumdar	29
AI and Creativity... On our Own Terms? Siok Sian Pek Dorji	45
Rethinking Bhutan's Cultural Heritage in the Age of AI Sagar Lepcha, Jigme Seldon and Jigme Dema	60
Human - AI Interfaces for Bhutan's Rural Development: Insights from the Shingkar Dairy Cooperative Katsu Masaki	72

AI & GOVERNANCE

Preparing Bhutan's Civil Service for the Age of AI Tshering Cigay Dorji	81
Law for AI and AI for Law Ugyen Tshering	91
Bhutan's Digital Future in the Age of Artificial Intelligence Tshering	107
Bhutan's e-Government Transition: Progress, Gaps, and the Path Ahead Sithar Norbu and Tshering Cigay Dorji	121
Artificial Intelligence Ecosystem and DHI 10X Phuntscho Namgay	135

AI & EDUCATION

Rethinking Educational Technology in Bhutan: A Media Ecological Perspective Jangchu Tenzin	140
Generative AI in Teacher Education: Student Teachers' Use and Perspectives in Bhutan Gembo Tshering	150
Navigating the Complexities of GenAI in Bhutanese Higher Education: Leveraging Its Potential for Transformative Learning Tobgay	161
Drawing the Line: Reflections on AI and Learning Tshering Yangki	176

INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVES

Can Bhutan Adopt AI on Its Own Terms?

Renata Dessallien

181

Educating for Human Flourishing in a World with Artificial Intelligence

Greg Watkins and Mike Taubman

199

AI on Bhutan's Terms: Embedding Human Values into Technology

Srikanth Chandrasekaran

206

Credit Where Credit is Due: What Bhutan's Intellectual and Cultural Patrimony Offers to the Global Debate about Trustworthy AI

Stephan Sonnenberg

211